| Technology Report | Our ShulCloud account has been closed; however, the experience has still been valuable in determining areas that we can improve our organization and efficiency. To that end, a new calendar has been installed onto the old site and includes Hebrew calendar dates, holidays, and all the technical functionality of a Google calendar. An agenda and "today's Hebrew date" are on the front page of the website as well. A photo gallery update is pending. Bookkeeper and Administrator are working together to make QuickBooks into a more functional database. Constant Contact to remain in use for newsletters and weekly communications, but Har Shalom will be responsible for paying that bill. | |
